Story of Place 2014

By Kerrie Kenton

2400mm x 1200mm

Acrylic on canvas

This artwork was created during the Christmas in the Bush 2014 celebration. This annual event brings together the Aboriginal community and workers to celebrate culture and Christmas. The artwork was created during an arts workshop with Darug artist Kerrie Kenton. Kerrie's design represents the Aboriginal community, organisations and the eleven local Government Councils. Each Council of the northern Sydney Region is depicted by the circles with Aboriginal Elders and community connections surrounding these symbols. The young Aboriginal people of the communities, contributed to the creation of this artwork. Their hand prints placed within the art expresses their connection and participation.

The background colours are a representation of the Dreaming of the northern Sydney Region and the colourful dots are the physical connection to each of the Councils. The white dots express the cultural and spiritual importance of culture and story. The kangaroo and emu tracks show the journey of both male and female ancestors and the participants and reflects some of the totems of the Aboriginal people. This artwork visually expresses the Aboriginal community's connection to this place. It acknowledges and pays respect to the Darug and Guringai people, the traditional people of the northern Sydney Region, the Elders, past and present. The story of yesterday, today and tomorrow and is their Story of Place.

From the chairs...

In 2015 the Guringai Festival celebrates 15 years of sharing Australia's First Peoples culture and heritage in the Northern Sydney region. Happy Birthday to us! Someone said there was going to be a cake!

We invite you to join in all the fabulous events and activities of this year's Festival. We hope you are inspired and learn something new.

The jam packed full festival program starts with "Pathways to Recovery" for Sorry Day, continues through Reconciliation Week and culminates at the end of NAIDOC week.

This year's Festival theme Story of Place has guided the activities with a line up once again filled with events that will touch your heart, make you laugh and celebrate US as a whole of community living in Northern Sydney, Guringai Country.

We hope you enjoy this years Guringai Festival 2015 and we hope you come and help us eat the cake – at the launch of the Festival on Friday 29 May in Hornsby Mall 10am–2pm, or at many of the events!

Sue Pinckham,
Caroline Glass-Pattison, and Susan Moylan-Coombs
Co-Chairs,
Guringai Festival Committee

We acknowledge the Traditional Owners of the land,
the Guringai peoples on whose land we now stand, we pay our respects to the Elders past and present.

About the Guringai Festival

Founded in 2001, the Guringai Festival aims to raise awareness of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people living in the Northern Sydney region. The festival usually starts on Sorry Day, 26 May and goes through to the end of NAIDOC Week, the second week in July each year.

The festival involves 11 Councils and numerous reconciliation and community groups. Events include workshops, art exhibitions, performances, films and talks.

SORRY BUSINESS

We would like to acknowledge the passing and contributions of those members of the local community who are no longer with us to celebrate the Guringai Festival.

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people should be aware that this document/website may contain images or names of people who have since passed away.

Pathways to Recovery for Stolen Generations Survivors and their Families

Tuesday 26 May, 9am-1pm
The Civic Pavillion at The Concourse
409 Victoria Avenue, Chatswood
FREE

National Sorry Day is an Australian wide observance day held on May 26 each year. This day gives us a chance to come together and share the stories and walk together towards healing for the Stolen Generations, their families and communities.

Last year we started a new dialogue and lay the foundations for a Pathway to Recovery and posed the questions, what does healing and wellbeing look like and how can we write a new story? We cannot simply keep rereading our old ones. Each new generation must be given the tools and be empowered to create communities that are healthy, happy and whole. The future is in their hands and they hold the key to the survival of this planet and of humanity.

So what are our new stories, what are our stories of wellness, stories of healing and Story of Place

This year's Sorry Day event will continue to explore the theme Pathways to Recovery with an expert panel and special guest performance.

In the afternoon members of the Stolen Generations and their families are invited to the Healing Circle in Lane Cove National Park. Transport will be provided to and from The Concourse, Chatswood.

Saltwater Country Exhibition

Open Tuesday - Sunday, 10am-5pm
Exhibition Dates: 8 May - 28 June
Manly Art Gallery and Museum
West Esplanade Reserve, Manly
FREE

Saltwater Country is a major touring exhibition that presents new work by 16 contemporary Queensland Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander artists. The term 'Country' has come to be understood as an all-encompassing word to explain the intrinsic nature of Aboriginal culture and creative expression as a reflection of the connectedness to land and place of birth. What is less understood is the equally strong cultural connection to the sea and water's edge. This exhibition seeks to capture the distinctive cultural and creative experience as artists reclaim histories, investigate their pasts and establish new ways of caring for country and community through their artistic practice. Artists: Vernon Ah Kee / Daniel Boyd / Michael Cook/ Megan Cope / Erub Arts / Fiona Foley/ Rosella Namok / Mavis Ngallametta / Laurie Nilsen/ Napoleon Oui /Ryan Presley / Brian Robinson/ Ken Thaiday / Alick Tipoti / Ian Waldron / Judy Watson. Curated by Michael Aird and Virginia Rigney. A touring exhibition by Museums & Galleries Queensland and Gold Coast City Gallery.

Sorry Day

Tuesday 26 May

National Sorry Day is an Australia-wide observance held on May 26 each year. This day gives people the chance to come together and share the steps towards healing for the Stolen Generations, their families and communities. Stolen Generations refer to Indigenous Australians who were forcibly removed from their families and communities.

Reconciliation Week

Tuesday 26 May

National Reconciliation Week offers people across Australia the opportunity to focus on reconciliation, to hear about the cultures and histories of Australia's Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples, and to explore new and better ways of meeting challenges in our communities. The Week is timed to coincide with two significant dates in Australia's history, which provide strong symbols of our hopes and aims for reconciliation.

nswreconciliation.org.au

NAIDOC Week

We all Stand on Sacred Ground: Learn, Respect and Celebrate

Sunday 5 – Sunday 12 July

This year the theme highlights Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples' strong spiritual and cultural connection to land and sea. The theme is an opportunity to pay respects to country; honour those who work tirelessly on preserving land, sea and culture and to share the stories of many sites of significance or sacred places with the nation.

As the oldest continuing culture on the planet, the living culture of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people is intrinsically linked with these sacred places. Sacred places can be geographic feature like a river or lake, a beach, bays, inlets, hills or mountain ranges or ceremonial grounds, galleries of rock art or engravings or places used for gathering for cultural practices.

This year's theme was also chosen specifically to highlight and celebrate the anniversary of the 'Handback' of Uluru, one of these sacred sites, to its traditional owners on 26 October, 30 years ago.
